The word "alumnus" as used in this letter, refers to any man who has matriculated at the University, whether a graduate or not.

Information asked of

Jeremiah Kendall

University of Georgia.

Dear Sir:

As an important part of the celebration of the Centennial of the University, the Board of Trustees has ordered the preparation and publication of a Centennial Alumni Catalogue, to contain, as far as possible, a full but concise account of the life and services of all the alumni during the century.

The hearty cooperation of all living alumni, and of the relatives and friends of all deceased, is necessary to the success of the undertaking. Your prompt and careful attention to the inquiries set forth below will be a real service to the University, and will be most cordially appreciated. If you are not able to give the information under any head, please leave the space blank, so that it may be filled by others.

The alma mater again extends to all alumni a hearty invitation to join with her in the celebration of the Centennial, June 12th—19th, 1901.

Fraternally yours,

WALTER B. HILL,
Chancellor.

1. Name, in full, (Do not use initials):

   Jeremiah Kendall, called by classmates "Jere."

2. Address; state, county, city, street and number:

   Mrs. D. J. Kendall, 200 Main St., Athens, Ga.

3. Place and time of birth:

   Hancock County, Ga., May 20, 1825.

   Attended the celebrated old school at the Zion under Prof. Beman. Afterwards his father, Mr. D. Kendall, moved to Upson.

4. Date of entrance, with class entered:

   Attended school in Bullock while they entered the State University (Franklin College) in 1837.
5. College honors, or distinctions of any kind:

    Received Spenle's place in the Junior Class of 1839, and delivered a brilliant speech which was published, and is now in possession of his wife.
    The family highly appreciate the glowing tribute of Dr. Church who said he was one of the most brilliant young men who had graduated there, up to that date.

6. Literary Society: Nemosthenesian

7. Date of graduation, and degree received; or date of leaving college: 1840.

   Won the 1st Honor. Valedictory Address was published and is still in the possession of his family.

8. Other institutions attended later; degrees received; with dates:
   Studied law, and was admitted to the Bar

9. Honorary degrees; by whom conferred, with dates:
   Honorary Degree conferred by Dr. Church, Haddell, and others.

10. Member of learned societies:
11. Facts relating to marriage: He married April 14th 1848 in Groveton, Ill. to J. J. Mitchell, a young lady of fine family and superior intellect, the eldest daughter of Samuel Mitchell who once owned all of the lands where Atlanta was built, even before it was called Martinsville.

12. Facts as to occupation and business life:

He practiced law successfully in Groveton many years, but being in poor health settled on a large plantation near Song, Ill. and gave his attention to farming and exercise in the open air.

13. Public service:

(a) Civil: Dates and titles of all public offices, appointments, or distinction:

Represented his County in the Legislature very early in life. Was appointed Colonel of the Militia before he was.

(b) Military: Dates of service, name of commands, offices held:

Enlisted with a company during the Civil War in Pike County, Ill.

(c) Positions in religious or educational work, with dates:

Was Principal of a flourishing school in Joliet Co near the old Cape Mill, for a short while.
14. Writings:

15. Any additional information of a personal nature:

He was the eldest son of Dr. David Kendall of Bellwood, Illinois, being a man of wealth, culture, and refinement. His younger brothers, Dr. John B. Kendall was a student at the University at the same time, but could not complete the full course on account of ill health. He too was gifted intellectually, represented his County twice at Willardville, and was elected to welcome President James E. Polk to Springfield in 1849. Dr. J. R. Kendall, formerly of M. P. Conf. but now President of, is half brother.

16. Names and addresses of any relatives, immediate or remote, who were alumni:

Distantly related to Richard Love, who was architect of one of the first buildings on the campus of the University. The old Laboratory, I think.

Alex Mitchell, a recent alumnus, is nephew of his wife.

Note: If this circular is sent to the relatives of an alumnus deceased, kindly give accurately the date of death.

He was killed at the great battle of Franklin, Tenn., Nov. 30th 1864, while bravely marching to the front in defense of his country. A friend says, he was of handsome figure, magnetic presence, and withal a young man of rare intellect and brilliant promise. He left a wife and six small children.