CALHOUR TIMES JUN 10 1943

R. J. Lewis' Father Dies at Carrollton

J. J. Lewis, one of Carrollton's oldest citizens and father of R. J. Lewis, of Calhoun, died at Carrollton on May 31 at the age of 87. Funeral services were held at Cross Plains Baptist church on Wednesday. June 2. conducted by Rev. Stallion and Rev. Cole. The following grandsons acted as pallbearers: Grady Lewis, Ralph Bagley, Warner Lewis, Horace Hins-ley, Roy Hinsley and Hubert Hinsley.

Mr. Lewis is survived by three sons.
R. J. Lewis, Calhoun; R. E. Lewis,
Carrollton, and J. J. Lewis, Newnan;

two daughters, Mrs. Mary Hinsley and Mrs. Lucy Thrower, 34 grand-children, 48 great-grandchildren and four great-great-grandchildren.