After a Long and Useful Life Uncle Joab Passes to the Great Beyond.

One of the oldest and best known citizens of Gordon county has answered the Master's call and gone to a higher reward.

Mr. Joab Lewis familiarly known as "Uncle Joab," died last Thursday morning at his home in South Calhoun and was buried in Bethlehem graveyard at Sonoraville Saturday with Masonic honors, a large concourse of friends and relatives being present.

Mr. Lewis was one of the oldest citizens of the county. He was born February 13, 1825, and was in his 86th year. He was one of the most widely known leaders of singings in North Georgia and has held the position of president of the Gordon County Singing Convention for a number of years. He will be sadly missed not only by his relatives but by the people all over Gordon county. The Times sympathizes with the bereaved.
