Death Waits at End Of Bus Ride

Mrs. John C. Roach left last Friday for Pine Mountain Valley to spend Christmas with her brother, Mr. James T. Linn.

When she got off the bus, they met her and said, "we have sad news for you. We will have to carry you to the church. They are holding your brother's funeral there now." JAN 1 1948

This is the third brother and her husband that Mrs. Roach has lost to the grim reaper during 1947, and in the meantime she has been critically ill.
