Calhounite's Kin Dies in Atlanta; Services Monday

Elijah Jackson Locklear, 51, of 704 East Second Avenue, Rome, died at 6 a. m. Sunday in an Atlanta hospital following an illness of four weeks. His condition became critical three weeks ago. Mr. Locklear was the brother of Dr. J. T. Locklear, Calhoun. Surviving are the widow, the former Miss Ruby Matthews; three daughters, Mrs. Elizabeth Williams of Long Beach, Calif., and Misses Frances and Catnerine Locklear, both of Rome: three sons. Charles and Jack Locklear, both of Marietta; Billy Locklear, of the U. S. Air Force stationed in London, England; the mother, Mrs. J. T. Lockiear, of Rome: three sisters, Mrs. R. N. Matthews, Mrs. Lucille Wells and Mrs. Bertha Weldon, all of Rome; one brother, Dr. J. T. Locklear, of Calhoun.

Six grandchildren also survive.
Funeral services were held at 4 p. m. Monday at Second Avenue Baptist Church with the pastor, the Rev. B. A. Winburn, and the Rev. H. F. Joyner officiating.
Interment followed in the family
lot of East View Cemetery.