

LOGAN, GEN. JOHN

CALHOUN TIMES JAN 3, 1889

The remains of Gen. John Logan were removed from the Hutchinson vault; in Rock Creek Cemetery, where they were placed two years, to the new Logan Chapel in the National Soldiers' Home Cemetery, and the guard of seven artillerymen who have kept watch over the body since it was deposited in the Hutchinson vault, was relieved. JAN 3, 1889