CALHOUN TIMES, SEPT. 17, 1873

A GENTLEMAN direct from Chattooga county says that John Long, the notorious outlaw, who killed Mr. Taylor in that county last week, was taken from the juil at La Fayette a few days ago, by a Sheriff's posse from DeKalb county, Alabama, and was reported to have been killed by them while attempting to make his escape. SEPT 17, 1873

inker. Longwill be remediated a much committed a much occumitted a much occumitted a much occumited a much occur of Mr. A B. Ech. occ in 1869, for which I Bartow Superior Court of senienced to be hanged sequently pardoned by Bu