

W. LEON LONG

W. Leon Long, age 70, passed away in the local hospital Thursday, April 11, at 4:30 p.m., following three week's illness.

He was born and reared in Gordon County, son of the late Monroe Long and Laura Whitfield Long. Mr. Long was a building contractor, and deacon of Riverview Baptist Church and donated the land for the church building.

Survived by his wife, the former Miss Emma Hayes of Gordon County to whom he was married Sept. 28, 1918; one son, R. C. Long of Calhoun; three daughters, Mrs. Maurice Davis of Calhoun, Mrs. Otto Knight of Rome and Mrs. Harlen Ralston of Marietta; seven grandchildren; three brothers, C. L. Long of Daytona Beach, Fla., Clifford Long Sr. and Hansel Long both of Calhoun, and one sister, Mrs. Berta Bohannon of Atlanta.

Funeral services for Mr. Long were conducted Saturday, April 13, at 2:30 p.m. from the Riverview Baptist Church with Rev. Dewey Casey, Rev. Winford Casey and Rev. Charles Kerr officiating.

Charles T. Owens, Claude Nichols, Mrs. Pauline Davis and Mrs. George Hayes had charge of the music.

Pallbearers serving were Bill Pendley, Clyde Herndon, J. B. Gentry, Cecil Mashburn, Kenzel Smith, and Harbin Davis. Honorary pallbearers were Dr. E. D. Barnwell, Clarence Chastain, Rev. Billy Barton, Claude Nichols, John Ralston and Dock Bagwell. APR 17 1968
Interment in Fain Cemetery.

THOMAS FUNERAL HOME.

LONG, W. LEON
CALHOUN TIMES APR 17 1968