MRS. LOVELACE, 66, FORMER RESIDENT, DIES IN ATLANTA

Mrs. Mary Ann Lovelace, 66, longtime resident of Rome, died at the home of her daughter. Mrs. Alfred Chesser, in Atlanta, Sunday morning at 6:30 o'clock.

The body was brought to the home of her son, Timm Lovelace, on the Kingston road. Funoral servess will be conducted. Tuesday moining at 11 O'clock at the O28 Grove church, near Adairsville. The pastor, the Rev. A. B. Cash, and the Rev. O. E. Rutland will officiate, with interment in the O2k Grove cemetery. W. P. Whitworth, Adairsville funeral director, is in charge.

Mrs. Lovelace das born in Gordon county, the daughter of the late James and Bridget Jennings Witchin 1889 she was married to Watt Loverson who died ecven years ago. She was a consecrated christian character, a member of the North Broad Baptist church. and her life was spent in service to ner religion. She nad many friends Floyd ın Goraon. Bartow and county. Mrs. Loveiace lived Rome for many years before going o Atlanta recently.

She is survived by the following children, Henry, Timm, Harry and rink Lovelace, all of Rome; Mrs. Boyd Cox, Mrs. Alfred Chesser, of Atlanta, and Mrs. Virgil Smith, of wacon; and ten grandchildren.

Pallbearers will include D. P. Stephens, H. F. Payne, L. P. Welch, Marin Blackwelder, George Lediora and W. M. Hardin. They are asked to meet at the residence on the kingston road at 10 o'clock.

ME NEWS TRIBUNE May.

lay 31, 17.