Mrs. Harriett Robeson Lovett, 82, of Calhoun Road. Route 1: Adairsville, died Monday morning in a Rome hospital, following a brief Mrs. Lovett was born in Marietta, Aug. 29, 1896, and was the daughter of the late L. B. and Mary Etta Holtzclaw Robeson. She spent the early part of her life in Atlanta and Marietta and was a founding member of the Peachtree Methodist Church in Atlanta, She was a graduate of Weslevan College of Macon, was a poet and for

Mrs. Lovett was a member of the Calhoun First United Methodist Church, where she was a Sunday School teacher. She also was a member of the Hillhouse Garden Daughters of the American Revolution. Home Demonstration Club and the Audobon Society. She had been a resident of Floyd County for the past 25 vears, where she and her son had owned and operated Lovett Gardens. She was a well-known horticulturist and had presented programs to various clubs pertaining to

She was married to the late horticulture.

Home.

years

newspaper columnist.

WAS

MRS HARRIETT ROBESON LOVETT

iliness.

Road United

several

Charles E. Lovett, who died . Feb. 14, 1964. She is survived by two sons. Wilson D. Lovett, Rome Road, Route 1, Adairsville, and Linton R. Lovett of Miami, Fla.; several nephews and one niece. Oct 18, 1978

Funeral was at 11 a.m.

Wednesday from the chapel of Combs and Free Funeral