Miss Lusk, 87, Dies On Monday Funeral services for Miss Minnie Lusic, 87, were conducted Wednesday at 2 p.m. at Stamp Creek Baptist Church with the Rev. Weldon Scoreins officiating. Coleman Balliew had charge of music and burial was in Starmp Creek Cemetery. Miss Lusk died in the local rest home Monday after three months of declining health. The daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Lusk of Canton, Miss Lusk moved from Cherokee County to Calhoun in 1934. She was a member of the Stamp

ence Lusk of Calhoun; two sisters, Mrs. Emma Bishop of Cartersville, and Mrs. W. J.

Sanford of White sister-in-law.

Mrs. L. H. Lusk of Cartersville.

Nephews served as pallbear-

ers. Mov 16 1971

Creek Babtist Church. Surviving are a brother, Clar-nieces and nephews.

Nov. 8. following three months of declining health. Miss Lusk had made her home in Calhoun since 1934. moving from Cherokee County. She was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Lusk of Canton and was a member of the Stamo Creek Baptist Church

MISS MINNIE LUSK

the local rest home Monday.

Miss Minnie Lusk, 87, died in at White. Miss Lusk is survived by one brother. Clarence Lusk of Calhoun: two sisters. Mrs. Emma Bishop of Cartersville and Mrs. W. J. Sanford of White: one sister-in-law, Mrs. L. H. Lusk of Cartersville; nleces and nephews also survive. Funeral services were conducted Wednesday at 2 p.m. from the Stamp Creek Baptist Church with the Rev. Weldon Scorgins officiating. Coleman Balliew had charge of music. Interment in the Stamp Creek

Cemetery. Nephews served as pallbearers. Nov 101971 THOMAS FUNERAL HOME