

LYLES, MRS. GLADYS SILVERS
Chalkhour Times Jan 6, 1988

MRS. GLADYS LYLES

Mrs. Gladys Lyles, 58, of Oakman, died at 3:05 a.m. Friday (Jan. 1, 1988) in Gordon Hospital, following a four-day illness. JAN 6 1988

Mrs. Lyles was born April 15, 1929 in Murray County, a daughter of the late Cliff and Lizzie Wooten Silvers.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Frank Lyles, in 1973.

Survivors include, two daughters, Mrs. Glenda Mullins of Fairmount and Mrs. Julia Haulk of Ranger; a son, Johnny Lyles with the U. S. Navy in Memphis, Tenn.; stepmother, Mrs. Cliff Silvers of Oakman; three sisters, Mrs. Thelma Morris of Oakman, Mrs. Mary Petty of Ringgold, and Mrs. Geraldine Young of Oakman; six brothers, Gene and Arvil Silvers, both of Davis conducting the service. Pallbearers included: Col. Woodrow Willett, Dr. Malcolm T. Barksdale, Frank Blackstone, Ray Broadway, Robert Springer and Robert Bambridge. Robert Interment was at 2 p.m. in Cherokee Memorial Park.

THOMAS FUNERAL HOME

Ranger, and Jack, Grady, James and Rosco Silvers, all of Oakman; seven grandchildren, two great-grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral was Sunday (Jan. 3, 1988) at 2 p.m. from the Bradley Anderson Memorial Chapel of Max Brannon & Sons Funeral Home with Rev. O'Neil Hicks