Labor Day Weekend at Communist Training School 1957

Charles Gomillion, Dean of Students at Tuskegee Institute, was the leader of the Tuskegee Boycott. This incident was commenced only after a psychological survey of the area had been made to determine the outcome.

Rosa Parks was the central figure in the agitation which resulted in the Montgomery Bus Boycott.

On the first row are Reverend Martin Luther King (2nd from right) of the Montgomery Boycott, and Myles Norton, director of the Highlander Folk School.

PICTURED HERE (foreground) is Abner W. Berry of the Central Committee of the Communist Party. Apparently he used this station wagon as transportation.

The activities of Reverend Martin Luther King represent the ultimate in "civil disobedience." It is doubtful that Reverend King could have carried on such a program without outside leadership and direction beyond the ability or capacity of local people. The relationship between Community Chest and cited that organization as "the supreme bid of the Communist Party for power in the United States through a front."

Experts on Communism observe the record of Aubrey Williams to reflect anti-US foreign policy and anti-US domestic policy. As early as 1944 a report of the Committee of which Congressman Dies was chairman named Aubrey Williams as a member of the National Citizens Political Action Committee (NC PAC). This same address is also the address of Friends of Koinonia Farms.

Conrad Browne is a leader of inter-racial Koinonia Farms, Americus, Georgia, the scene of boycotts, demonstrations, segregation, and violence. Browne was a resident leader of Koinonia Farm during the violence, boycotts and other incidents of aggression which occurred there.

Alien McSwain is credited with precipitating the Clinton, Tennessee, public school incident. He is a talented musician who is in attendance at many meetings such as this Labor Day Weekend at Communist Training School.

C. N. PARRISH (on left) who was panel moderator on the question "What Is the Impact of Integration Founded by Reverend King for Region-wide Agitation of Racial Violence and Strife."

In the first row and behind him is Reverend Martin Luther King, president of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference founded by Reverend King for region-wide agitation of racial violence and strife.

Alonzo G. Moron, President of Hampton Institute; Septima Clark, integration workshop director, and publisher, Southern Farm Journal; Aubrey Williams (3rd from right) president of the Southern Conference Education Fund Inc. and publisher, Southern Farm Journal; and two other leaders of the Four Day Seminar and Aubrey Williams, president of the Southern Conference Education Fund Inc.

It is incredible that any man with a record of Communist affiliation like that of John B. Thompson could have carried on such a program without outside leadership and direction beyond the ability or capacity of local people. The relationship between Community Chest and the Communist Party is evident from coast to coast and from the Gulf of Mexico to the Great Lakes.

On the back of the station wagon is a sign which reads: " farm."

Rosa Parks, who precipitated the Montgomery Alabama Bus Boycott, and Ralph McCall, publisher of the Montgoy, was one of the original leaders of the Montgomery Bus Boycott. This agitation has resulted in strife and violence in the Alabama capital and continues to maintain tension and dissatisfaction. Gomillion has been most vehement in his defense of Communists and the Communist Party. His agitation is in large part responsible for this disturbance.

The Southern Christian Leadership Conference is a new organization founded by Reverend King for region-wide agitation of racial violence and strife.
