2	Library name	County	Are there nearby historical, genealogical, or other similar organizations, that hold local/family history materials?
3	Athens-Clarke County Library	Athens-Clarke	University of Georgia Library especially the Georgiana Collection and the Manuscript Collection in Hargrett Rare Book and Manuscript Library. There are many local family papers in these collections as well as records of local organizations. Another thing they have that would be GREAT to digitize is the contents of the Georgia Vertical Files. These are no longer being added to but are a wealth of information. The files are divided into four sections: Georgia Biographies Georgia cities and towns the Univ. of Ga and General Information. The list of these file folders is available online at http://www.libs.uga.edu/hargrett/garoom/vert.html . Some of these folders are beginning to disappear and these folders with materials compiled by subject make a useful research tool. Athens-Clarke Heritage Foundation Inc. has some records although many are being transferred to our collection. Athens Historical Society has its papers and records at Hargrett Rare Book and Manuscript Library. The records and papers of the Old Athens Cemetery Foundation are also at Hargrett.
