A book's a book, although there's nothing in it."

AUGUSTA, GA.:

CHRONICLE BOOK AND JOB PRINTING ESTABLISHMENT.

1888

To the Fraternity Goat:

Whose patience has been more severely taxed by oft repeated jokes at his expense, than by the physical burden of weighty novitiates, this volume is sympathisingly dedicated.

Please accept this little volume

And what pleasure it conveys ;

None are there, than thou, to whom is

Due more credit or more praise

On giving to the public

Rich gems of college lays

And true tales of student's ways.
