

OLD, OLD CHESTNUTS.

BOILED EVERY DAY.

"How do you expect to make a rise if you don't get up your metre?"

"You will observe, young gentlemen, &c."

"Tell us what our author says upon this subject."

"We will come to that later on in the course."

"Yes, yes sir," that is EXACTLY right, Mr. B."

"Mr. Hogg, you will take the first sentence."

"You can work this out for yourself in the laboratory, so I need noterbotherwithithere."

Youngblood says all he has learned about Geology is that the sophuncle of the Jurassic Ammonite was dorsal and not neutral, and its evolution was characterized by an increased complexity of the suture.
