

• • The Non-Fraternity Club. • •

THE idea of a Non-Fraternity Club may seem paradoxical to some, but it will not appear that way to those who are perfectly familiar with the conditions, as they are here in college. Over one-third of the students, for various reasons, do not join fraternities; to effect some co-operation, without binding oaths, is the object of this organization.

The club dates back two years, but those two years have been eventful ones for the "Nons." We make no fight against the fraternities, on the contrary, our relations are of the friendliest—we simply use all fair means to further the interests of the "Nons." Our men may be found in the front ranks on the athletic field, in the halls of debate and in the class-room.
