

The Trustees of the University of Georgia.—Continued.

HENRY D. McDANIEL.

FIFTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

Born in Monroe, Georgia, September 4th, 1836. Educated in Atlanta, and at Mercer University. A. B., 1856; A. M., 1859; admitted to the bar 1857, entering upon the practice of law in Monroe. Member of Secession Convention, 1861. Major Eleventh Georgia Regiment, army Northern Virginia, C. S. A. Member Constitutional Convention, 1865. Member House Representatives Georgia Legislature, 1873-'74. State Senator Twenty-seventh District (in which are located University of Georgia and Emory College), 1874 to 1883. In April, 1883, elected Governor of Georgia for unexpired term of Alexander H. Stephens. Again elected Governor in October, 1884. On expiration second term, returned to Monroe, resumed the practice of law, with necessary attention to private business interests, and has not since been a candidate for office. In politics, a Democrat.

Besides above public positions, from 1884 to date, Trustee of the University of Georgia; 1883-'90, Trustee Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. From 1878 to date, Director Georgia Railroad and Banking Company.

DAVID BLOUNT HAMILTON.

SEVENTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

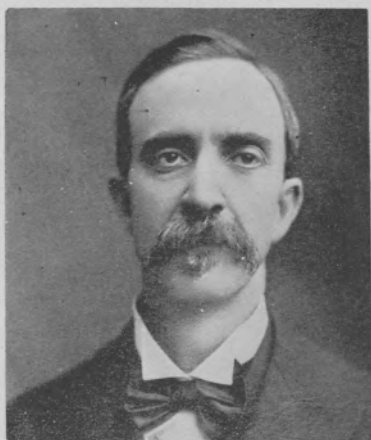

Born near the town of Hamilton, Harris County, Georgia. Graduated at the University of Georgia with distinction. Was admitted to the bar and practiced law at Rome, Georgia. He was opposed to secession, but when Georgia withdrew from the Union his opposition ceased and he entered the service. Served two terms in the General Assembly from Floyd County. Was a member of the Constitutional Convention of 1877. President of the Board of Trustees of Shorter College at Rome, Georgia. Has been a Trustee of the University of Georgia for many years, and his term expires 1901.

The Trustees of the University of Georgia.—Continued.

HENRY THOMAS LEWIS.

EIGHTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

Born in Oxford, Georgia, October 21st, 1847. Two years later his father, Miles W. Lewis, returned to Greene County, Georgia, with family. Subject of sketch during Civil War was in Georgia Military Institute at Marietta. From there went into Confederate service with Georgia Cadets, and remained actively engaged in war until its close. Graduated 1870, Emory College, Oxford, Georgia. Taught school two and a half years. Admitted to the bar in 1873. In this profession engaged until promoted to Supreme Court Bench of the State on December 1st, 1897. Married in 1880 to Miss Hallie B. Poullain, of Greensboro, Georgia. In politics, has taken part in political conventions, State and National. Loyal advocate and promoter of the principles of Democracy. In 1884, delegate to Democratic National Convention which nominated Grover Cleveland for President. In 1896, delegate at large from State of Georgia to Democratic National Convention and placed in nomination at Chicago for President, Hon. W. J. Bryan. During session of Legislature of 1896, a candidate for United States Senate, but unwilling to be instrumental in continuing the deadlock that arose, withdrew from the race.

ROGER LAWSON GAMBLE.

TENTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

Born May 20th, 1857, at Louisville, Georgia. Pupil of ex-Governor W. J. Northen and, after the war, of Richard M. Johnson, near Baltimore. Graduated from University of Georgia in 1871. Read law in office of William Hope Hull, in Augusta, and in 1873 admitted to the bar. In 1875 was appointed Solicitor of Jefferson County Court. In 1880 elected by the Legislature Solicitor-General of Middle Circuit and served for four years. In 1886-'89, represented Jefferson County in Georgia Legislature. In 1890, elected Judge of Middle Circuit and still holds that office. Subject of sketch is grandson of Roger L. Gamble, who was Judge of Middle Circuit in the thirties, and member of Congress from Georgia in 1840.

The Trustees of the University of Georgia.—Continued.

SPENCER R. ATKINSON.

ELEVENTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

Was born at Incachee, Camden County, Georgia. Afterwards removed with his parents to Marietta, Georgia, at which place he resided, excepting a short interval during the war, until he was twenty-one years of age. Studied law in the office of Judge Geo. N. Lester. Was admitted to the bar in Marietta, where he practiced law for a few years, afterwards removing to Brunswick, Georgia, and continuing the practice of law there until January 1st, 1897, at which time he assumed the duties of Judge of the Superior Courts of the Brunswick Circuit. Was elected by the Legislature to this position twice. In the fall of 1894 was elected by the Legislature to fill the unexpired term of Associate Justice Simmons, who, at this time, was promoted to the position of Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. He held the office of Associate Justice of the Supreme Court until December, 1897, at which time he resigned to accept a position upon the Railroad Commission. Trustee University of Georgia; term expires September 1st, 1899.

AUGUSTUS LONGSTREET HULL.

RESIDENT TRUSTEE.

Was born in Athens, Georgia, September 8th, 1847. Entered Freshman Class in College, September, 1862. Went into the army September, 1864. After graduating with the class of 1866, in the University of Georgia, he engaged in the construction of the Macon & Augusta Railroad, then taught school for three years in the University High School. In 1873 he went into the Bank of the University, of which he is now cashier. Was elected Trustee of the University in 1883, and Secretary and Treasurer in 1890.

The Trustees of the University of Georgia.—Continued.

JUDGE HOWELL COBB.

RESIDENT TRUSTEE.

Judge Cobb was born at Athens, Georgia, July 7th, 1842. He had conferred upon him, by the University of Georgia, the degrees of A. B., A. M., and B. L. Was admitted to the bar in 1866. Was appointed Judge of the City Court of Athens when it was first organized, which office he still holds. Trustee of the University of Georgia, and Professor in the Law School. Judge Cobb enlisted in the service of the Confederate States of America in the spring of '61 as a private in the troop artillery of Cobb's Legion. After one year's service was transferred to Sixteenth Georgia Regiment, of which his father was colonel. When his father was promoted to brigadier-general, and afterward major-general, he was given position on his staff as aid-de-camp with the rank of captain of cavalry, which position he held through the war.

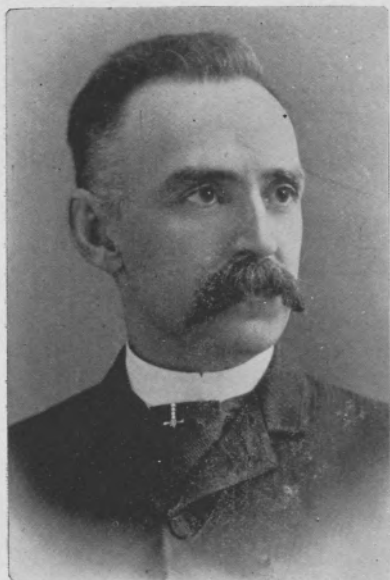

N. E. HARRIS.

PRESIDENT OF BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF TECHNOLOGICAL SCHOOL.

Born January 21st, 1846, at Jonesboro, Tennessee. In Confederate Army from 1862 to 1865. Moved to Georgia November 6th, 1865. Graduated at University of Georgia, in A. B. Course, in class of 1870, sharing first honor. Studied law and admitted to the bar October, 1872, in Sparta, Georgia. Moved to Macon July, 1873, and formed partnership there with Walter B. Hill, classmate, and the partnership has continued to the present. In Legislature, lower house, from 1882 to 1886. Chairman of Finance Committee last two sessions. In Senate 1894-'95. Chairman of Judiciary Committee. Appointed on commission to locate and build State Technological School, 1886. Chairman of Local Board of Trustees of said school, and ex-officio Trustee of University of Georgia from 1886 to date. On Board of Trustees Wesleyan Female College, Macon, Georgia, from 1882 to date. Receiver, President and Vice-President, respectively, of the Macon & Northern Railroad Company from 1892 to December, 1895. Knight Templar in Masonry.

The Trustees of the University of Georgia.—Continued.

P. W. MELDRIM.

PRESIDENT OF BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS INDUSTRIAL COLLEGE FOR COLORED YOUTHS.

Born at Savannah, Ga., Dec. 4th, 1848. Graduated from the University of Georgia in 1868, and from the Law School in 1869. Began the practice of his profession in Savannah. Was Representative in the State Senate for two terms, in which capacity he was instrumental in securing some wholesome legislation in favor of the University of Georgia. He now enjoys a lucrative practice at the bar of Savannah. Trustee of the University, ex officio.

N. L. HUTCHINS.

NINTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

Born at Lawrenceville, Gwinnett County, Ga., October 4th, 1835. Was graduated from Emory College. Read law in private office and was admitted to the bar just before the late war between the States. He entered the service and was made First Lieutenant of the Sixteenth Georgia Regiment. Afterwards promoted to a captaincy. In 1863 commissioned Lieutenant-Colonel Third Georgia Battalion of Sharpshooters. For several terms Representative of Gwinnett County in General Assembly. Elected Judge of the Western Circuit in 1882. His term as trustee of University of Georgia expires in 1899.

A. O. BACON.

SIXTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

Born in Bryan County, October 20th, 1839. Entered the University of Georgia at the age of sixteen, graduating in the collegiate course in 1859, and from the Law School in 1860. Began the practice of law in Atlanta. Joined the Army of the Southern Confederacy in May, 1861. Enlisted as Adjutant of the Ninth Georgia Regiment. Representative from Bibb County in the General Assembly, being elected Speaker of the House. Elected United States Senator in 1894. His term as trustee of the University of Georgia expires in 1901.