We learn from the Atlanta Constitution that Mr. James Freeman died in the city on the 13th instant, at the residence of his son-in-law, Mr. A. F. Lord, where he has been staying. He left his old home in this county. He was 86 years old. He was highly respected by a large circle of friends who will be pained to learn of his death. His remains were carried to the cemetery at the request of his family. March 27, 1873.
