Oakman Girl Fatally Burned Last Friday

Helen Hurt, 15-year-old daughter of Julian Hurt, one of the most prominent citizens of Gordon county, was fatally burned at the Hurt home, "Rockdale Plantation," near Oakman, last Friday. Miss Hurt died two hours after reaching a hospital at Dalton, where she was immediately carried.

Miss Hurt, who had been ill, had slipped her dress over her pajamas, and was standing near an open fire when her clothing caught fire. Her brother-in-law, Mr. J. P. Foy, of Jacksonville, Fla., was in another room with her father. She screamed and ran into the room where they were, and Mr. Foy was badly burned about the hands while trying to extinguish the blaze.

The body was brought to Calhoun Friday night, and funeral services were held at the Jackson Funeral Home Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, Rev. G. P. Cantrell officiating.

Miss Hurt is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Julian F. Hurt; five sisters, Mrs. J. P. Foy and Mrs. Aurie Wilt of Jacksonville, Fla.; Mrs. Hugh Stephens of Princeton, N. J.; Mrs. Martin Smith of Montgomery, Ala.; and Mrs. Jeff Morgan of Big Springs, Texas, and one brother, Mr. Julian Hurt, Jr., of Princeton, N. J.

The following served as pallbearers: Carter Tate, Philip Tate, Frank Stewart, Jule C. Neal, Warner Neal, J. H. Paschall.

Interment was in Falin cemetery. E. L. Jackson & Son in charge.
