One of Gordon County's Most Prominent and Progressive Citizens and Leading Farmers Dies Friday, November 4.

Mr. Julian Freeman Hurt, one of Gordon county's most prominent and useful citizens, passed away at his home near Oakman last Friday night, November 3, after a protracted illness. Mr. Hurt was 73 years of age.

Mr. Hurt achieved a considerable measure of distinction in the field of agriculture, being one of the most progressive farmers in this section of the state. He was a pioneer in the diversification movement, and was noted as the originator of the famous Rockdale seed corn and other farm crop seeds. He took a deep interest in the civic, religious and educational affairs of his community and section, and contributed of his time and means to the advancement of every worthy cause.

Besides his wife, Mr. Hurt is survived by the following children: Mrs. John P. Foy, Oakman; Mrs. H. L. Stephens, Metuchen, N. J.; Mrs. Frank Witt, Oakman; Mrs. Jeff Morgan, Roswell, New Mexico; Mrs. Martin Smith, Montgomery, Ala., and Mr. Julian F. Hurt, Jr., Oakman. One sister, Mrs. W. M. Vary, of Atlanta, also survives.

Funeral services were held at the First Methodist church of Calhoun Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with Rev. G. P. Cantrell, his pastor, officiating. Pallbearers were Judge T. W. Harbin, J. G. B. Erwin, T. A. Haney, Julian Cummings, Sam Carter, J. H. Aubry, Waring Beat and Frank Freeman.

Interment was in Fain cemetery, E. L. Jackson & Sons, funeral directors, in charge. Nov 10, 1932