Mother of A. R. McDaniel.

Mrs. Abbie McDaniel, beloved Calhoun woman, and who has been one of the most outstanding women in club activities for Gordon county, died Wednesday afternoon at 4 o’clock after an illness of four months.

Mrs. McDaniel, who before her marriage was Miss Abbie Kinman, was 81 years of age at the time of her death. She leaves three sons and one daughter, A. R. Mrs. McDaniel was the wife of the late W. H. McDaniel, of Calhoun, prominent business man, who preceded her in death in 1898. Mrs. McDaniel was a charter member of the Hillhouse Garden club and was also a member of the Calhoun Woman’s club until recently when bad health forced her to withdraw from that organization. She was for many years a member of the Salem Baptist church and took an active part in the church life.

She lived for many years at McDaniel Station near Calhoun, and that community was named after her husband. She has been living in Calhoun for about the past 40 years.

Funeral services will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock from the home on Court street. James Starr, funeral director, will be in charge of arrangements. Dr. Warren G. Cutts, pastor of the First Baptist church, will officiate at the services and he will be assisted by Rev. G. F. Venable and Rev. J. G. Kirckhoff. July 31, 1934
