Are you ready for summer? The good times are just waiting to be had. The road sign that says “Stay and see Georgia” means what it says. There is so much to do and so many places to go in Georgia. Georgia offers enough to practically satisfy anyone. We have beaches and islands to the east. To the south there is the Okefenokee Swamp for those seeking the unusual and to the north lay the beautiful mountains. In, around and between these points are countless other places of interest.

If Georgia is not enough, then the sky is the limit. Several people in the area have already found Las Vegas and the Bahamas to their liking.

Regardless of how much leisure time or finance you have, there’s some fun out there waiting just for you. It doesn’t matter whether it’s a “break-away - weekend” or a two-week cruise, the point is to get up and move!!

CHESTER ENTERPRISES
Greensboro, Ga.

Aside from being an educator, Willie Chester is also a businessman. He is the first Black citizen to open a major business in the business district of Greensboro. He owns a music shop and a barber shop on Main Street. At one time he owned a motorcycle shop. It was during 1973 that he and his family attended a Kawasaki Dealer’s meeting at Disney World, Florida. At this time he was the only Black in the entire Southeast who had a Kawasaki Motorcycle dealership.

Mr. Chester states “I make my living in school but I’m different from many men, I don’t have hobbies like fishing and hunting or other sports activities, my hobbies are my business investments such as my barber shop and music shop”.

He is a member of the Board of Directors of the Greene County Chamber of Commerce, five years on the Board of Action Inc., a former member of the Greensboro City Council and served on the committee of Tri County Gas.

Mr. Chester is very active in education, serving as Principal of the Union Point Elementary School and also as President of the Greene Co. Teachers Association.

Mr. Chester, born in Siloam, Georgia, is a 1956 graduate of the Greensboro Colored High School. He graduated from Payne College with a degree in education. After attending Payne he attended Atlanta Univ. where he received his Masters and the University of Ga. where he received his 6th year’s certificate.

The Chester family includes three children and his Florida-born wife, Mrs. Lenester Neal Chester. He is a member of the White Plains 2nd Baptist Church where he is a Deacon and Supt. of Sunday School.

Obviously this man touches many people, in many ways, and that’s especially important in business.

If there are certain marks for successful businessmen, then Willie Chester must score high. Greensboro has a winner!!

As each of us already know Music is the Universal Language. Where words fail, music speaks. Music is Love in search of a word.

We the members of this chorus are certainly in full bloom this year. We have appeared on many programs of which we enjoyed it as well as the audience. To us singing is fun so join us everyone.
GET UP AND GET GOING... BREAK THE BREAKFAST BLAHS!

by Beverly Norman

ATHENS — If your family suffers from the mid-morning "blahs," maybe it's because they're missing out on the most important meal of the day — breakfast.

"Since morning is the time of day when demands may be great, it should also be the time when you have sufficient energy to keep physically active and mentally alert," says Dr. Martha Johnson, food and nutrition specialist with the Cooperative Extension Service. "A good breakfast insures quick energy to start the day and lasting energy to carry out morning activities.

"In fact, studies have shown that not only are children who eat breakfast more inclined to do well in school, but that adults also need to maintain their energy level to do well on the job."

In spite of all the good things about breakfast, however, about 80% of American families are "breakfast skippers." As a result, many American kids don't receive all the nourishment they need — nourishment only breakfast provides.

If you have a family of breakfast skippers, now's a good time to get them to change to good breakfast habits. Dr. Johnson gives the following suggestions:

- Plan breakfast menus ahead, keeping them simple, yet interesting and quick to fix. Include some foods that can be prepared and refrigerated the night before or that are ready-to-eat or easy-to-heat in the morning.
- Allow your family sufficient time to eat and enjoy breakfast in an unhurried fashion. This may mean getting them up five minutes earlier to give them some extra time.
- Whenever possible, have the family eat breakfast at a set time with everybody ready to sit down at the table together. If hectic or irregular schedules of individual members dictate otherwise, build breakfast around eat-it-anytime convenience foods.
- Try perking up menus with a variety of foods to create appetite and enthusiasm for the first meal of the day.

"If your family balks at the idea of traditional breakfast foods, try something new," says Dr. Johnson. "There's nothing sacred about cereal and milk or bacon and eggs."

Here are some quick and tasty breakfast recipes to help you get your family off to a good start:

Cream of wheat with raisins and milk: Bring 1 cup water and 1/8 teaspoon salt to a boil. Slowly add 3 tablespoons quick cream of wheat. Stir constantly. Add 2 tablespoons raisins. Cook one minute. Makes one serving.

Peanut Butter Drop Biscuits: Mix ¾ cup flour, 2 tablespoons dry milk, 1 teaspoon baking powder, and ¼ teaspoon salt. Cut in 2 tablespoons short-

RUBY SHAW

Residential burglary has increased throughout the State of Georgia. Are we putting signs in our windows saying ‘Burglars Welcome, Take What You Wish?’ Not likely. Can we reduce it? Definitely! In order to do so, we need the cooperation of you, the home or apartment dwellers.

It has been proven that burglary is a crime of opportunities. So most residential burglaries occur during the daytime when no one is home. A few common methods of operation is for the burglar to go to the door asking for a fictitious person until he finds a residence where nobody answers the door; or the burglar may just pick a name out of the phone book and then call to see if the person is home. He is then reasonably sure that the dwelling is not occupied.

Some burglars specialize in hitting residences where the occupants are on vacation. They can spot these houses by the uncut lawns, old newspapers in the front yard, overflowing mailboxes, etc. If you go on a vacation, arrange with your neighbors to pick up your newspapers and mail. Inexpensive timers can be purchased that will turn your lights on radios on and off in the evening. In short, make your house look lived in. Notify the Athens Police or your local police of the dates that you will be gone so they can provide extra patrol (housecheck) on your home.

One fast and efficient way used by many criminals is simply to put a pipe wrench on the doorknob and twist until the locking mechanism breaks. This method can be prevented by the installation of a deadbolt lock with a one-inch throw above the doorknob.

Another common method is to insert a thin shin between the door and the molding. The shin is then slipped down until it forces back the spring-loaded door latch which allows the thief to enter. A deadbolt lock (which requires a key to unlock it from the inside as well as the outside) will prevent this type of entry, as well as preventing the thief from breaking an adjacent window, reaching in, and unlocking the door from the inside.

The locking mechanism on sliding glass doors is usually inadequate. A cheap and easy way to secure this type of entrance is to lay a rod in the track between the sliding door and the end of the track. Windows that slide open horizontally can be secured in the same manner. On windows that open vertically, replace the simple latch mechanism with one that requires a key.

Above all, keep your eyes and ears open for suspicious activity in your neighborhood. If you observe a crime being committed, call us, Athens Police, 543-1431 or your local police agent. You could be the suspect’s next victim.
LET'S GROW

A point to remember in purchasing a plant is to think about the conditions of the room where you're going to put it. Considerations should be given as to the amount of light the plant will need and how much light you have in the room. Room temperatures should also be given consideration.

One of the biggest problems most plant owners face is overwatering. If you should overwater your plant let the soil dry out completely before using anymore. Watch carefully when you start to rewater. Make sure the soil is damp not muddy. Overwatering is just as bad as underwatering.

For those of you going on vacation, if you'll be gone 4 to 5 days absences presents no problems to some plants if you keep the air conditioning going. (If you feel you must turn it off, take your plants elsewhere. They can't take the heat build-up). If the air is left on, water the plants as usual and wave good-by. If you'll be gone for a longer period get someone to water them for you.

Remember, if you're uncertain about how to grow that plant and something is happening to it, call your nearest plant store and ask them for information. They'll be happy to help you.

Editor:
I just read "Up Front." Ms. Sarah Collins, April 1977. I felt compelled to comment on a young lady who has achieved, so much academically, culturally, and spiritually.

Her beautiful philosophy "Don't give way to hate, follow your heart, and dare to say what you feel no matter what" can be a guide and an inspiration for a lot of young people. May good luck and good fortune continue to smile on her.

Ms. S. B.

In April's issue your article on Sarah Collins was exciting to read. It is hard to imagine one person being in so many organizations and still keeping an "A" average. If more students followed her example the whole world would be better. I know her parents are very proud of her and they should be too.

All I can say is good luck to such a bright and talented young lady. . . . . .

Editor:
That Sarah Collins is some kind of lady. I read that she plans to attend school here at Georgia in the fall and that suits me just fine.

I admire the right combination of looks and brains. She has got to be the one I've been looking, hoping and wishing for.

Congratulations to the Editor and staff of Image for producing a very interesting and informative magazine. I am particularly impressed with the magazine because it accentuates many of the people involved in different jobs and social activities in our Athens area. I feel this is especially good for our younger readers. I am very supportive of "Image" and hoping for its continued success.

Yours truly,
Ms. P. Chavis

BETHAL BAPTIST CHURCH
Watkinsville, Ga.

In the year of 1867 the Bethal Baptist Church was organized under the leadership of the late Dr. C. H. Lyons, Sr.

The land was purchased from the late Edmond Thrasher. The members cut trees and skinned logs, tied brush to start the first building. After the building was completed, they decided on the name Bethel taken from the Bible - Genesis 12:7-8 Verses.

In these One Hundred and Ten years Bethel has had the pastoralship of ten pastors. Each in his own way making a step in the history of the church.

In May, 1951, Rev. E. J. Hardy became the pastor. Under his capable leadership the members held dedication services for this new church in 1973.

Bethal Baptist Church is located on U.S. 441 near downtown Watkinsville, Georgia.

BOBBY STALLINGS

V. President of the Student Activities Association
Clarke Central High School

...Faye Jackson

What would you do if you wanted to help others and get involved in an activity to better the school and its student body? Well for those reasons, Bobby Stallings Jr. at Clarke Central High School joined the Student Activities Association and has currently been elected as Vice-President for the 77-78 school year. The purpose of the S.A.A. is to provide activities for high school students to engage in outside of the class. For the three years that Bobby was a member of the S.A.A., he served twice as director and once as co-vice president. When asked about his new position as Vice-President, Bobby states, “The only way that a V. Pres. can really be active is to work through the students. I plan to work with the students, listening and using their ideas to make the upcoming year very successful.”

Bobby is the son of Mrs. Annie Dodley and a member of the Hills Chapel Baptist Church where he sings tenor in the Chancellor Choir.

Along with S.A.A., Bobby is a member of the band, chorale, Beta Club, Math Club, Spanish Club, yearbook staff and track. He was nominated for the Governor’s Honor Program and succeeded in making All State Chorale. His bowling ability has presented him with numerous trophies from city and state tournaments. Other hobbies include swimming, softball, skating and gardening.

Future plans for Bobby are attending Georgia Tech in Atlanta and majoring in Industrial Engineering.

You’ve worked all week long and you’re tired and bored with what’s going on. You think about what has been happening and you want to get away from it all.

Well - why not break away?? Get out of the same old routine. Think about what you’re missing, pack your bags and go.

There are many sites and vacation spots within easy driving distance of Athens. You can leave here at the end of the week and arrive in many enjoyable places in Georgia, South Carolina and Tennessee in only three or four hours.

In South Carolina there are the Grand Strand and the Myrtle Beach Pavilion and Amusement Park to be enjoyed. The Grand Strand is miles and miles of beaches, clubs, shops and hotels. At the Pavilion and Amusement Park, you can have fun on the 25 thrilling rides, check out the discotheque in the Magic Attic, visit other attractions or just relax on the beach.

Near Chattanooga, Tennessee, you can visit Rock City atop Lookout Mountain. From this area you have a fantastic view of 7 states. You’ll see the majestic spendor of ageless rock formations, sweeping panoramic views of the lazy Appalachians, breathtaking vistas and the natural charm of flowers and foliage.

In Georgia, there’s St. Simon’s Island, Jekyll Island, Savannah Beach and Callaway Gardens. All of the locations have places for sightseeing, recreation and just having a ball. . .Georgia does have everything you could possibly enjoy - from the sandy beaches to the national forests with the State’s capital - Atlanta - in between.

Atlanta has every imaginable facility and it’s less than seventy (70) miles away. In this great city you can visit the Archives Building, The Art Museum, Dr. Martin Luther King’s birthplace and Underground Atlanta. Check out the shops and clubs in Peachtree Plaza and the Omni Complex. Attend a baseball game at the Stadium. Visit Central City Park, Piedmont Park, Grant Park Zoo or the Cyclorama for a slow and lazy afternoon.

All of the aforementioned cities have nearby quality hotels with reasonable rates. And the rates are even lower for groups, clubs or organizations...

If none of the above are to your liking, there are many chances to travel with groups to New Orleans, The Caribbean or the U.S. Virgin Islands. Everyone knows that New Orleans is the home of Bourbon Street, the fabulous French Quarters, and the Super Dome. In short - no matter what you choose to do in New Orleans - you’re almost guaranteed to have a great time.

In the Caribbean and the Virgin Islands - all kinds of opportunities are available. There are places for shopping, sight seeing, dancing, meeting people and again places for “Fun in the Sun”.

If you’ve got a little time and money on your hands - make use of it. Check with others in your age group and your travel agent, pack your bags and break away...

"A ONE DAY AFFAIR"

If you're a member of a club, church group or any other organization, why not rent a van and get away for a day. There are many places here in Georgia where a group of people can spend an entire day without spending a lot of money. A group of ten or more people can rent a van here in Athens for only $20.00 a day and 15 cents a mile (which will hold up to 15 people.)

Why not spend a "one ticket day" at Six Flags over Georgia? They have special group rates and you can enjoy all the rides, shows and attractions as many times as you'd like for only one price.

Lion Country Safari and Stone Mountain Parks are also great places to get-a-way to. They have group rates and loads of fun for kids from 6 - 60 years.

All of these places have picnic and camping areas. So you can save more money by packing a picnic lunch.

Want to save even more? Check out Watson Mill State Park and Fort Yargo State Park. The only charge at Fort Yargo is for renting boats or canoes and a small fee for swimmers. They also have areas reserved for grilling or just sitting around and eating the lunch you bring with you.

You've all heard of the campaign to "Stay and See Georgia", well, "Why not Stay and see Athens"? That's right!!! Athens has everything you need to have a really great time. There are places for playing, sight-seeing, dining, picnicking, you name it and yet - Athens has it all.

So, whether you'd like to get away or stay here in Athens - it doesn't really matter. What does matter is that you get up and have some fun. Enjoy the weather and save at the same time. Think about it! If you're bored, it's nobody's fault but yours.

INTERESTED IN TRAVEL..?

You go to a travel agency and the first thing you worry about is "how much extra is it going to cost me to use a travel agent?" The answer surprises most people - "No extra cost." The reason is that a travel agent is paid commissions by the companies which he represents, namely the airlines such as Delta or Eastern or any of the other air carriers and cruise lines. Cost of the tickets from a travel agent is exactly the same as you would purchase directly from the airline or cruise company. The consumer receives the added advantages of dealing locally with experienced agents. One call gives you complete service.

Please call THRANHARDT TRAVEL SERVICE in Athens at 549-7081 for airline tickets or cruise vacations.
Negroes have come a long way from what they used to be. As we all know blacks were slaves. Thanks to Freddick Douglas and others like him, we got through slavery.

But even today in another century, it is hard to comprehend what the emancipation of five million Negro slaves meant in the United States.

It’s effect upon American destiny is still unmeasured. All this was anticipated, however, and because of it the decision was an agonizing one.

But at least two consequences were unexpected. The little band of anti-slavery folks whose selfless laborers had been crowned with success, suddenly found themselves out of work.

Perhaps this was not serious, but the surprise awaited.

The freedom Frederick was given was not at all what he understood as freedom. Frederick Douglas who was the foremost representative of the Negro’s own best efforts in the abolition campaign, led the rejoicing for many months after Lincoln issued his Proclamation before it began to dawn on him that victory for the Northern armies or even ratification of the 14th and 15th amendments were not of themselves going to accomplish what his people hoped and others imagined.

Not many people honestly believed that Negroes were themselves to blame for the misery and frustration they had wandered or been led into.

Booker T. Washington’s autobiography has outlived whole libraries of fiction.

A bad start had been made was the way to put it. Ignorant and foolish, the infants of freedom tried to run before they could walk. The only way to build house, a life, or a civilization is to start at the bottom and work your way up.

Washington accepted segregation and injustice, and tried to silence agitation for citizenship’s rights. In 1903 in a book called “THE SOUTH OF BLACK FOLKS”, W. E.B. DuBois threw the fat into the fire so to speak. The dispute thus began when DuBois became the mouthpiece of the NAACP in 1911.

Negro leadership in the United States went into a new phase after DuBois himself broke with the NAACP in 1933. The leadership has been replaced by a kind of folk hero such as Adam Clayton Powell Jr., Thurgood Marshall and Martin Luther King Jr.

Perhaps it is just as well times has changed since Frederick Douglas went about our country helping Negroes. The end of the first century of freedom does seem like the proper time to recapitulate. At this end, the farmer owns his own land, the skilled carpenter and the brick mason lives in his own home, and the Negro businessman in his own shop saw attitude changes and barriers fall. We have come a long, hard road and because we are not yet finished, we must pull together as brothers and sisters.

But like Frederick Douglas, we together black and white have made great contributions. We as individuals have traveled down a dark road, this road has brought victory as well as defeat. But with my point of view the world would be brand new. No hatred, no destruction, only Love, Togetherness and Devotion. Because together we can.

In the past blacks have suffered because whites thought they were superior, and that blacks were only good for working. They thought blacks were too Continued ignorant to read or write. But knowing if they had the right knowledge they would all be free. But with my point of view, I wish everyone could be equal and no one would consider himself better.

A man who had a dream like mine was Martin Luther King Jr. He stands tall in Black American History. He had a dream, a glorious dream and one day it will come true because I too have a dream that together we will and we shall overcome.

Tracy’s speech was presented in the Optimist International Oratorical Contest.
