April 30, 1863

General Orders

Oct. 25th | Brigade and Regimental commanders will at once take active measures to put a stop to the prevalence among and about the camps of unarmed bands or being practiced within the limit of the command. If it is impossible to intercept such parties or of necessity to discharge the arms, regimental commanders will communicate the fact to the Brigade commander, who will direct the discharge to be made at a distance. The name of the director of an officer, any persons found carrying or using the limit of the prisoners, must be the very man be immediately arrested and kept in solitary confinement. In the hands of the Rebels.

By command of

Brig. Gen. R. J. Ford
Commanding Division

[Signature]

Official

[Signature]