Head Quarters
Toombs's Brigade
20th Dec. 1862.

Major:

I have the honor to report to you that the first attack in the action of the 28th occurred by Toomb's Brigade by flanking. The Brigade occupied a position near the Centre of the Second general line of battle. The enemy moved up progressed near enough to place their line to draw in batteries and batteries was near enough to suffer some Casualties from the artillery fire on their enemy directed at artillery or other troops in their front on its flanks. A list of these Casualties I send you.

The Brigade deployed
The most magnificent activity, energy in strengthening its position to resist attacks. In a single night with eight sharp shots or eight picks by very few men, it rendered its position insuffi-ient to Small arms to every kind of attack except one by
