Duplicate

Head Quarters Suffolk
April 30, 1863
8.30 P.M.

General

Maj. Mitchell, Chief of Staff, has been ordered to move his trains across the Blackwater as quietly as possible, and with the utmost dispatch. The Commander-in-Chief directs that you move your infantry and artillery back here as rapidly as you can and leave the cavalry to cover the movements of the trains.

Duncan Smith

I. M. Dyer

W. G. Strong

Brig. Gen. H. L. Pennnington
Comdg 1st C.