State of Georgia

This Indenture made the nineteenth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, and in the eleventh year of American Independence between George Ogg, esquire of the Town of Augusta, the one part, and Thomas Glancey, esquire of the same place of the other part, Witnesseth that the said George Ogg for and in consideration of the sum of five hundred pounds current money of the said State to him in hand to be and truly paid by the said Thomas or before the sealing and delivery of these presents, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged to be good and sufficient, hath granted, bargained, and sold unto the said Thomas his heirs and assigns all that tract of land situated lying and being in the County of Franklin on the north branch of Eastside Creek containing five hundred acres, bounded south by land unknown and on all other sides by said land, which when more fully appear reference being had to the said George for and in the name of a plat thereof, these presents, receipts, sealing wax, and registration fees to be paid as the same shall arise, and one thousand seven hundred eighty-four days and Interest in the Secretary’s Office on the twenty-fourth day of the said last mentioned month, by you, viz. J. J. Hall, 1803, six hundred thirty-three, together with all and every adjoining its appurtenances thereunto whatsoever to the said land of land lying, belonging, or in any way appertaining, and the remainder, Recess, heirs of said George Ogg, for himself and his heirs to hold the said land of land so and heretofore in the premises and appurtenances thereof belonging as aforesaid and every part thereof unto the said Thomas Glancey and his heirs and assigns forever. And the said George Ogg, esquire, for himself and his heirs does hereby agree and covenant and assure unto and in the said Thomas Glancey and his heirs and assigns against and in favor of him the said George and his heirs and assigns, and every other person and persons that shall take, receive and partake hereof, that he, the same as aforesaid, and these presents, and the said George, his heirs and assigns, will and at all times and foreever defend the same as aforesaid and these presents.

In Witness whereof the said George Ogg, esquire, have hereunto set their hands and seal the day and year first above written.

G. Ogg

Witnys, that the said George Ogg, esquire, hath hereunto set his hand and seal the day and year first above written.

Wm. Smith

Deed delivered in the presence of:

O. W. Wambine

M. S. H. W.
Before me, John Battle, Justice of the Peace for said County, personally appeared before me, William, Rob. and being duly sworn, reported words that he is a witness to the within deed and saw George Rhy sign said and desire for the purpose here mentioned.

Sworn to before me the 15th. Oct. 1795

John Battle, J.P.