GEORGIA.

To Henry Yonge and William Alderman Esq., Surveyor-General:

YOU are hereby directed and required to measure, or cause to be ad-measured and laid out, unto John Lewis Three hundred and fifty Acres of Land at the head of a Branch of Oconee Creek called Walnut Branch, where the said John Lewis is already settled.

Observing His Majesty's Instructions in laying out the same, and taking the utmost Care you can, that the same has not been heretofore run out on any Warrant or Patent, but be vacant Land; and return this Warrant, with a Plat of the Lands so laid out annexed, certified by you, into the Secretary's-Office, within Six Months from this Date, that a Grant may be prepared for the same.

Given under my Hand and Seal, this twenty-first day of February,

Secretary's-Office, Certified by James Whitefield, Esq. said down by a scale of 20 chains an inch.
