To my loving brother James Stewart and the lawful issue of his body forever, my negro boy Billy and the sixth part of the remainder of my estate, except the two hundred pounds South Carolina currency which I give and bequeath to Elizabeth Wilson, daughter of William Wilson, for her and her heirs and assigns forever.

Item. Further, my will is that the above-mentioned two hundred pounds shall be paid to her at the age of twenty-one years or marriage, but if she should die before of age or marriage, then to go to my loving brother John Stewart for him and his heirs and assigns forever.

Before me, John Wright, Esq., Judge of the County Court of the County and District of Georgia, personally appeared William Gracie, the eldest son of John Gracie, to whom the subscription of the Deed was added, and subscribed the same as Hannah Stewart of the County of St. John, who being duly sworn in the Holy Scripture of Almighty God, made oath that he was present at the time the said Testament was signed, pronounced, and delivered to the Deed, and that he saw John Baker and Henry Polly, subscribe their names as witnesses thereof at the request of the Deed, and in my presence.

At the same time John Stewart and Daniel Stewart, two of the Executors named in the said Will, qualified as such given under my hand the 16th Day of January 1772.
