WHEN Alexander McDonald, esq. (in the late of this province dying intestate, having whist he lived, and at the time of his death, divers goods, within the province aforesaid; by means whereof, the full disposition and power of grant- of all and singular the goods, rights, and credits of the said deceased, and also auditing of the said administration, and a final division of the same to me belong; I, directing that the goods, rights and credits, of the said deceased, may be clearly, converted, and disposed of, do hereby grant unto the said Andrew Martin 300 on behalf I very much confide) full power, by the tenor of these presents, to administer the goods, rights, and credits of the said deceased, which to him in his life-time, and at the time of his death, the rest of the goods, rights, and credits of the said deceased, I have now, and which I have, to ask, levy, recover, and receive the same, and to pay the debts of the deceased stowed obliged, in average and proportion, so far forth as the goods, rights, and credits, will extend, agreeable to the directions of an act of the General Assembly of this day made and provided: I, the said Andrew Martin, Holy Evangelists of Almighty God, to make a true and perfect inventory thereof, and to the Secretary's-Office in Savannah, in order to be recorded, on or before the day of the next ensuing, and to render a just and true account, calculation and reckoning, of the same. And I ordain, depute, and constitute you, the said Andrew Martin, as aforesaid of all and singular the goods, rights, and credits, of the said deceased. I have hereunto set my hand and seal the day of in the thousand and seven hundred and the year of his Majesty's reign, signed by