May it please Your Excellency,

The information against John Butelli, who has applied to Your Excellency to be a Molasses-liquor in his cause — charge him with being present in the Rebel Camp, during the late siege of Savannah. I do not know that he ever bore arms among them, but that he came from the next province, when in Rebellion — expecting no Doubt, but this would fall to the Enemy, under these circumstances. Now for he is no proper object of a Molasses-liquor. Leave your Excellency to determine
