To His Honour John Marshall Esquire, Governor and Commander in Chief in the State of Georgia.

The Petition of Elizabeth Morgan Humbly Sheweth,

That your petitioner, hath been reduced to a state of indigence during the continuance of the British Troops in Georgia, insomuch that she finds herself at present unable to provide for herself and children.

Your petitioner therefore humbly prays your honour, will take her case into consideration, and grant she may have permission to draw rations for herself and children, until by some employment she shall be able to provide for them.

And your petitioner as in duty bound will pray

Elizabeth Morgan

Telamon Cuyler Collection
University of Georgia