Know all men by these presents, that the province of the said State of Georgia is held and firmly bound unto the honourable Henry Clay Esq., Lieutenant Governor, and Lieutenant-Governor, and demaner-in-chief in the full and just set of two thousand pounds Sterling, to be paid to the said Governor, or to his successor, Governor and Ordinance of the province, or their certain attorneys or assigns, to which demand well and truly to be made. We bind ourselves, and every of us, our and every of our heirs and Administrators, for the whole and in the whole, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents sealed with our seals and dated the twenty sixth day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and fifty seven, and in the thirty fifth year of the reign of our Majesties, King George.

In consideration of this obligation, we will that the said Charles Joyce, Administrator of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of John Monroe, deceased, do make and cause to be made a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which shall come into the hands, possession, or under the knowledge of him, the said Charles Joyce, or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him and the same or so much as to be exhibited into the Session Office of this province at or before the thirty sixth day of April next ensuing. And the same goods, chattels, and credits, and all the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, at the time of his death, which at any time thereafter shall come into the hands, possession, or under the knowledge of the said Charles Joyce, or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons, for him the said Administrator, or his succession or assignments, shall be and remain in and to the said Administrator and his successors, in trust for the benefit of the said Governor, and Ordinance, for the use and benefit of the said Governor, and Ordinance, and the same or so much as to be exhibited into the Session Office of this province at or before the forty fifth day of January next ensuing, shall be and remain, to the said Governor, and Ordinance, for the use and benefit of the said Governor and Ordinance.

And the said Charles Joyce, Administrator, shall and do make and cause to be made a true and just account of the said goods, chattels, and credits which shall be found remaining on the said Administrator's account, the same being first examined and allowed of by the Governor and Ordinance of this province, in the like manner, shall deliver and pay into such other or former respectively as the said Governor and Ordinance, by his force or violence, pursuant to the true intent and meaning of the last will and testament of the said John Monroe, being made in the Province of Georgia, on the third year of the reign of King Charles the second, twelfth year of the reign of the said George, such estate, goods, chattels, and credits, and all the estate, goods, chattels, and credits, of the said John Monroe, together with the debts, rents, and profits, and all the estate, goods, chattels, and credits, of the said John Monroe, together with the debts, rents, and profits, and all the estate, goods, chattels, and credits, of the said John Monroe, together with the debts, rents, and profits, and all the estate, goods, chattels, and credits, of the said John Monroe, together with the debts, rents, and profits, and all the estate, goods, chattels, and credits, of the said John Monroe, together with the debts, rents, and profits.

Charles Joyce

Sam: C: W: Watson

[Seal]