To the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, Governor and commander in chief, in behalf of his Majesty's said Province and Company of thesaid Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur Esquire, within the District of Midway.

Confidence in the fidelity, care, and sincere services of Audley Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, Esquire, have governed by your Excellency, His Majesty's said Governor and commander, to administer the said Administration of all the regular government of the said Province, as the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, have been and are hereby appointed to do, and also to execute by the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, the powers and duties to them given by the Administration, the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, are required to execute with your other offices in the Secretary Office of this Province.

Secretary of State,

Henry Ellis,

To the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, Governor and commander in chief, in behalf of his Majesty's said Province and Company of the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, Esquire, within the District of Midway.

Confidence in the fidelity, care, and sincere services of Audley Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, Esquire, have governed by your Excellency, His Majesty's said Governor and commander, to administer the said Administration of all the regular government of the said Province, as the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, have been and are hereby appointed to do, and also to execute by the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, the powers and duties to them given by the Administration, the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, are required to execute with your other offices in the Secretary Office of this Province.

Secretary of State,

Henry Ellis,

To the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, Governor and commander in chief, in behalf of his Majesty's said Province and Company of the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, Esquire, within the District of Midway.

Confidence in the fidelity, care, and sincere services of Audley Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, Esquire, have governed by your Excellency, His Majesty's said Governor and commander, to administer the said Administration of all the regular government of the said Province, as the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, have been and are hereby appointed to do, and also to execute by the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, the powers and duties to them given by the Administration, the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, are required to execute with your other offices in the Secretary Office of this Province.

Secretary of State,

Henry Ellis,

To the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, Governor and commander in chief, in behalf of his Majesty's said Province and Company of the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, Esquire, within the District of Midway.

Confidence in the fidelity, care, and sincere services of Audley Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, Esquire, have governed by your Excellency, His Majesty's said Governor and commander, to administer the said Administration of all the regular government of the said Province, as the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, have been and are hereby appointed to do, and also to execute by the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, the powers and duties to them given by the Administration, the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, are required to execute with your other offices in the Secretary Office of this Province.

Secretary of State,

Henry Ellis,

To the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, Governor and commander in chief, in behalf of his Majesty's said Province and Company of the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, Esquire, within the District of Midway.

Confidence in the fidelity, care, and sincere services of Audley Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, Esquire, have governed by your Excellency, His Majesty's said Governor and commander, to administer the said Administration of all the regular government of the said Province, as the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, have been and are hereby appointed to do, and also to execute by the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, the powers and duties to them given by the Administration, the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, are required to execute with your other offices in the Secretary Office of this Province.

Secretary of State,

Henry Ellis,

To the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, Governor and commander in chief, in behalf of his Majesty's said Province and Company of the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, Esquire, within the District of Midway.

Confidence in the fidelity, care, and sincere services of Audley Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, Esquire, have governed by your Excellency, His Majesty's said Governor and commander, to administer the said Administration of all the regular government of the said Province, as the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, have been and are hereby appointed to do, and also to execute by the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, the powers and duties to them given by the Administration, the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, are required to execute with your other offices in the Secretary Office of this Province.

Secretary of State,

Henry Ellis,

To the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, Governor and commander in chief, in behalf of his Majesty's said Province and Company of the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, Esquire, within the District of Midway.

Confidence in the fidelity, care, and sincere services of Audley Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, Esquire, have governed by your Excellency, His Majesty's said Governor and commander, to administer the said Administration of all the regular government of the said Province, as the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, have been and are hereby appointed to do, and also to execute by the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, the powers and duties to them given by the Administration, the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, are required to execute with your other offices in the Secretary Office of this Province.

Secretary of State,

Henry Ellis,

To the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, Governor and commander in chief, in behalf of his Majesty's said Province and Company of the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, Esquire, within the District of Midway.

Confidence in the fidelity, care, and sincere services of Audley Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, Esquire, have governed by your Excellency, His Majesty's said Governor and commander, to administer the said Administration of all the regular government of the said Province, as the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, have been and are hereby appointed to do, and also to execute by the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, the powers and duties to them given by the Administration, the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, are required to execute with your other offices in the Secretary Office of this Province.

Secretary of State,

Henry Ellis,

To the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, Governor and commander in chief, in behalf of his Majesty's said Province and Company of the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, Esquire, within the District of Midway.

Confidence in the fidelity, care, and sincere services of Audley Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, Esquire, have governed by your Excellency, His Majesty's said Governor and commander, to administer the said Administration of all the regular government of the said Province, as the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, have been and are hereby appointed to do, and also to execute by the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, the powers and duties to them given by the Administration, the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, are required to execute with your other offices in the Secretary Office of this Province.

Secretary of State,

Henry Ellis,

To the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, Governor and commander in chief, in behalf of his Majesty's said Province and Company of the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, Esquire, within the District of Midway.

Confidence in the fidelity, care, and sincere services of Audley Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, Esquire, have governed by your Excellency, His Majesty's said Governor and commander, to administer the said Administration of all the regular government of the said Province, as the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, have been and are hereby appointed to do, and also to execute by the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, the powers and duties to them given by the Administration, the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, are required to execute with your other offices in the Secretary Office of this Province.

Secretary of State,

Henry Ellis,

To the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, Governor and commander in chief, in behalf of his Majesty's said Province and Company of the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, Esquire, within the District of Midway.

Confidence in the fidelity, care, and sincere services of Audley Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, Esquire, have governed by your Excellency, His Majesty's said Governor and commander, to administer the said Administration of all the regular government of the said Province, as the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, have been and are hereby appointed to do, and also to execute by the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, the powers and duties to them given by the Administration, the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, are required to execute with your other offices in the Secretary Office of this Province.

Secretary of State,

Henry Ellis,

To the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, Governor and commander in chief, in behalf of his Majesty's said Province and Company of the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, Esquire, within the District of Midway.

Confidence in the fidelity, care, and sincere services of Audley Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, Esquire, have governed by your Excellency, His Majesty's said Governor and commander, to administer the said Administration of all the regular government of the said Province, as the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, have been and are hereby appointed to do, and also to execute by the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, the powers and duties to them given by the Administration, the said Maxwell John Smith, Esquire, and Francis Arthur, are required to execute with your other offices in the Secretary Office of this Province.

Secretary of State,

Henry Ellis,