Money of great Britain, to be paid to the said Governor and Commander, and in case of his default, to the said Legislature, or to his executors, administrators, or assigns, the sum aforesaid, with interest, to the utmost extent of the law, and for the which sum we promise and agree, and promise to make, within twelve months from the date hereof, a true and perfect Inventory and Appraisement of such goods, chattels, lands, and credits as we do hold, have, and possess, or have in our power, or under our control, or subject to our use or use and disposition, together with such other Inventory and Appraisement as shall be required by the said Governor and Commander.

The condition of this obligation is such that if we fail to make a true and perfect Inventory and

such other Inventory and Appraisement as shall be required by the said Governor and Commander, within twelve months from the date hereof, then and in that case the said Governor and Commander may have recourse to dispose of the goods, chattels, lands, and credits, or so much thereof as may be necessary to answer the sum of Two Thousand Pounds, with interest, as aforesaid.

In consideration of the said Governor and Commander having given us the said obligation, we promise and agree, and promise to make, within the said twelve months, a true and perfect Inventory and Appraisement of such goods, chattels, lands, and credits as we do hold, have, and possess, or have in our power, or under our control, or subject to our use or use and disposition, and for the which sum we promise and agree, and promise to make, within the said twelve months, a true and perfect Inventory and Appraisement of such goods, chattels, lands, and credits as we do hold, have, and possess, or have in our power, or under our control, or subject to our use or use and disposition.

The said Governor and Commander may have recourse to dispose of the goods, chattels, lands, and credits, or so much thereof as may be necessary to answer the sum of Two Thousand Pounds, with interest, as aforesaid.

This obligation being so made, executed, and delivered, the same shall be void.
