Know all men by these Presents that we William & Elizabeth Coynes of Augusta in the parish of St. Paul's province of Georgia deceased, having administered all and singular the goods chattels and credits of John Robert Johnson deceased, or cause to be made a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods chattels and credits of the said decedent which shall come into the hands of John F. Gilpin or his joynt and several executor or assigns to which payment well and truly be made, we bind ourselves and every of us in our and our Administrators for the whole and in the whole Joynally and severally by these presents sealed with our seals and dated the Eleventh day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and sixty and in the third year of his Majestys reign.

The Condition of this Obligation is such that if the within bounden William & Elizabeth Coynes Administrators of all and singular the goods chattels and credits of John Robert Johnson deceased or cause to be made a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods chattels and credits of the said Decedent which shall come into the hands of John F. Gilpin or his joynt and several executor or assigns to which payment well and truly be made, we bind ourselves and every of us in our and our Administors for the whole and in the whole Joynally and severally by these Present sealed with our seals and dated the Eleventh day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and sixty and in the third year of his Majestys reign.

To according to law (condition being fulfilled) the whole and all the rest and residue of the said goods chattels and credits which shall come into the hands of John F. Gilpin or his joynt and several executor or assigns to which payment well and truly be made, and allowed by the said decedent or his Executor or Executors, this and every of us and our Administors in the manner and form as aforesaid, and no other nor any other condition or conditions, consideration or causes to be added to the same.

Sealed and Delivered
In the Presence of
Eld. Bernard