Georgia.

Know all men by these presents, That we, Quinton Poyler, Esq., Governor, and Commander in Chief of the said province of Georgia, for the term of years therein contained, and William Abercromby, Esq., Lieutenant Governor, of the same, in and over the said province of Georgia, for the term of years therein contained, are held and firmly bound unto his excellency, Esqr., Lieutenant Governor, as principal creditor or creditors, in the sum of fifty thousand pounds Sterling, to be paid to the said governor, or to his executors, and administators, or either of them, for their several and respective uses, and to have and receive the same for the payment of such debts as are due and owing to the said governor, or to his executors, and administators, for their several and respective services, and for the use of the said province, or for any other use or purposes to which the said governor may direct, to the intent and towards the payment of such debts as are due and owing to the said governor, or to his executors, and administators, for their several and respective services, and for the use of the said province, or for any other use or purposes to which the said governor may direct.

Whereas, by an act of the General Assembly of this province, intituled, "An Act to direct Executors and Administrators in the管理和Method of returning Inventories and Accounts of their Tents and Inheritance, and all other Persons who shall or may be intrusted with the Care and Management of the administration of estates, and to charge Commissions therein," it is, among other things, therein and thereby enacted, that no letters of administration as principal creditor or creditors, or for the use of the creditors, or of the estate of the deceased, do make, or cause, or cause to be made, an inventory and appraisement of the goods, chattels, and credits, of the said deceased; and that the executor or administratrix, or the executor or administratrix, of the estate of the deceased, shall make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits, of the said deceased, and that the same shall be made, or cause to be made, into the hands of the executor or administratrix, or the executor or administratrix, of the estate of the deceased, and that the said inventory and appraisement shall be made, or cause to be made, in the manner and form prescribed by the said act, and that the same shall be delivered, or cause to be delivered, into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him the said executor or administratrix, or the executor or administratrix, of the estate of the deceased, or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him the said executor or administratrix, or the executor or administratrix, of the estate of the deceased, or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons, or cause to be delivered, into the secretary's office of this province, at or before the twenty-first day of February next ensuing, and that the same goods, chattels, and credits, of the said deceased, at the time of his death, which, at any time hereafter,

Quinton Poyler
William Abercromby

[Signature]

Sealed and delivered in the presence of

James Whitefield.