To the Right Honorable the Governor and Council of the State of Georgia.

As to what passed at the conference with the Georgia commissioners, concerning our Armistice, which your Excellency desires me to endeavor to recollect, to the best of my recollection after mentioning the frontiers, you said to the following: That in regard to the Creek Navigation your Excellency could not assure for privateers, but that you would promise none of the inhabitants of the province should plunder or commit depredations without the property being secured.

This much in answer to your note.

Having the honor to be,

Your Excellency's,

Most Obedient

Most Humble Servant,

To the Inhabitants of Georgia in General I return my sincere thanks for the kind treatment that I have met with since my injunctions. I am not in my power to make injunctions, nor have I done you injustice for many injuries done you. I trust in your good help to come to a resolution of settling the account, or, as soon as possible. Whatever the truth may be, that I gave from this day forward it shall not be before my orders. I do not pretend to fix any limits, but I will own that I have done as bad nearly as the Georgia would allow, but this I can assure you all that you have men among you Call to good officers who are in great will to continue,
