To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

The Humble Address of

Both Houses of Assembly, of Your Majesty's

Province of Georgia,

May it please Your Majesty,

We your Majesty's Most

Dutiful and Loyal Subjects the Upper and Commons Houses of Assembly, of Your Majesty's Province of Georgia, in General

Assembly met, Beg Leave before Your Throne, to acknowledge the Blessing of Divine Providence and Your Majesty's Goodness, to which we owe our Being, once more, a Free and we trust that soon under Your Majesty's

Auspicious Reign we shall again be a happy

People

The more we reflect on and lament the Ruin which the late usurpation and Tyranny brought upon this Country, and detest the Wickedness and Madness of its Author, and the Infatuation of their Adherents

— The more sensible are we of Your Majesty's

Great Condescension in the early Re-establishment of Civil Government, and of Your Grace's

Assent to an Act of Parliament, relinquishing every Claim of Taxation over the Colonies except what may be deemed necessary for the Regulation of Trade and Commerce. Of Your Majesty's—

Favourable Intentions to omit all Arrears of Quit Rents, and Graciously proposing that all all those which may become due hereafter together with all Fines and Forfeitures that may arise to the Crown in this Province shall be appropriated to and for the use thereof. Which Cessions as they give the sincerest Satisfaction to all Real Friends of the British Constitution so they must convince even the most odurate in Rebellion, that Your Majesty has no other Wish but to rule according to Law, to maintain the Liberties and Privileges of all Your Subjects, and to employ Your Arms to no other Purpose, but to restore the Blessings of Good Government to Your whole Empire.

It adds much to our Happiness that the late formidable Attempt of the French against this Place, joined by Your unnatural Rebellious Subjects, has by the Signal Interposition of Divine Providence, and the Bravery of Your Majesty's Troops, not only ended in their Defeat, but also added Lustre to Your Arms, and affording the Loyal Inhabitants an opportunity of shewing to the World, their Zeal and Attachment to Your Majesty's Person and Government, by their Spirited Conduct in the Lines during the Siege. While we with the warmest Gratitude acknowledge Your Benevolence in Restoring us to Your Majesty's Peace and Protection, it is with the utmost Pain, that we find ourselves Impelled by the Duty we owe Your Majesty and our Country to lay before Your Throne the present distressful Situation of this Colony, occasioned by the continued Depredations of a set of the most Profligate Men, that ever existed, who have laid waste the Country, plundered the Inhabitants, and put to Death many of Your Loyal Subjects. But as these Circumstances have already been represented to Sir Henry Clinton, the Commander in Chief, we trust that he will afford us that Relief, our peculiar Situation demands, and that Your Gracious Intentions will shortly have their full Effect.

We are happy to embrace this Opportunity of congratulating Your Majesty on the Reduction of Charleston by the Brave of Your Troops under the able Conduct of their Excellencies Sir Henry Clinton and Admiral Arbuthnot, an Event that will be attended with the happiest Consequences to Thousands of Your Majesty's Well-disposed Subjects.

To our humble and warmest Thanks for all Your Majesty's Favours, and to ask, our Sincere Prayers to wise Disposer of all Events, that the Imperial Crown may long flourish on Your Majesty's Head, and Succession of Princes adorned with all the Virtues of their Illustrious Parents, may sway the British Sceptre till time shall be no more. And that

that Your Majesty's Arms may with the Blessing of God be crowned with Success to the Confusion and Overthrow of all your Enemies.

And while we beg Leave to assure Your Majesty of our invariable Attachment to Your Person, Crown, Dignity and Family, permit us also to express our warmest Hopes, that as this Colony has been the first restored to Your Majesty's Peace so that in all Your Dominions, none will ever be more sensible of, and grateful for the Blessings of Your Majesty's Government than the Inhabitants of this Province.

Voted, House of Assembly, 1st June 1715.

By Order of the House.

John Graham, Speaker.

Common Council of Assembly, 8th June 1716.

By Order of the House, Sam'l Tarley, Speaker.

G. L.
To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of the Council and Commons House of Assembly of your Majesty's Province of Georgia.

May it please Your Majesty,

We your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Council and Commons House of Assembly of this Your Majesty's Province of Georgia in general Assembly met, beg leave before your Majesty's Throne to acknowledge the blessings of Divine Providence and Your Majesty's Goodness to which we owe our being once more a free and we trust that soon under Your Majesty's auspicious Reign we shall again be a happy People.

The more we reflect on, and lament the ruin which the late usurpation and tyranny brought upon this Country, we deplore the wickedness and madness of its authors and the infatuation of their adherents. The more sensible are we of your Majesty's great condescension in the early reestablishment of civil Government and of Your Majesty's having generously assented to an act of Parliament, relinquishing every claim.

To The Kings most excellent Majesty

The humble Address of the Council & Commons House of Assembly of your Majestys Province of Georgia.

May it please Your Majesty.

 Sect 1.

To Your Majestys most dutiful & loyal Subjects the Council & Commons House of Assembly of this your Majesty's Province of Georgia in general Assembly met, beg leave before Your Excellency to acknowledge the blessings of divine Providence upon your Majestys goods, to which we owe, or owe being once more at peace, & we trust will soon under your Majesty's auspicious reign see that again be a happy People.

The more we reflect on the ruin which the late invasion by America brought upon this country, & let it be remarked the Anarch of its Author & the Infringement of those adherents, the more sensible we are of your Majestys great Condescension in the early Restoration of civil Government & of your Majesty having generously assented to an Act of Parliament.
Disclaiming every Claim of Taxation over the Colonies, except what may be deemed necessary for the Regulation of Trade between them & Great Britain of your Majesty's most generous Intention to remit all Arrears of Quit Rents,

... generously proposing that all those which may be owed due hereafter, together with all Fines & Forfeitures that shall arise to the Crown in this Province shall be appropriated to the for the Life there,

... which Conclusions as they give the sincerest Satisfaction to all real Friends of the British Constitution so they must convince even the most audacious rebellion that Your Majesty has in the interest of the Rule according to Law, maintain the Liberty & Privileges of all your Subjects & to employ your Army to no other Purpose, but to return the Blessings of British Governance to your whole Empire.

It adduced to our Treason, that the late formidable Attempt of the French against this Place, joined by your unnatural rebellions subjects, has by the Signal Interposition of Divine Providence not only ended in their Defeat, but also added Lustre to your Majesty's Arms (given the loyal Inhabitants an Opportunity) of pointing to the North. Their zeal and attachment to your Majesty's Crown and Government, by their spirited conduct in the lines during the siege

While we yield the warmest gratitude, acknowledge your Benevolence in restoring us to your Majesty's Peace & Protection; it is with the utmost Pain that we find ourselves impelled by the Duty we owe your Majesty & our Country to lay before your present compressed Situation of this Colony, occasioned by the continued Depredations of a set of the most profligate Plunderers that ever existed. We have laid waste the country.

We put in all many of your Majesty's loyal Subjects, under your Majesty's Army in this Province, at the same time that they were anxious for action, yet for some time to unknown cause have been chiefly kept in Savannah when it would have redounded much more to your Majesty's Service.

The Death of the General, as further Detachments had been sent to this Country to protect the Inhabitants from the Murder & Depredations of a few miserable Plunderers, but as these Circumstances have already been represented to the Commander in Chief. We trust that your gracious Intentions with sincerity be now fully carried into execution, without which, great calamities are ready to fall on this once flourishing but now nearly ruined Country.

So our humble wishes.

May their Majesties's goodness permit us to add our fervent Prayers to the wise disposal of all Events, that the Imperial Crown may long flow on your Majesty's Head, and that a Succession of Princes adorned with all the Virtues of their illustrious Parents may sway the British sceptre till Time shall be no more: And while our constant Affection to Your Person, Crown, Dignity and Family, permit us also to express our warmest hopes that as this Colony has been the first restored to Your Majesty's Peace, so that in all future Dominions none will ever be more sensible of Gratitude for the Blessings of Your Majesty's Government than the Inhabitants of this Province,

P.S.
