Special Orders #11

Colonel Joseph Clayton
Chief of Artillery and Ordnance and Chief of the Staff at Head Quarters, will make an inspection as soon as possible, at such hour as he may designate to the Commander of the Post, of the batteries at Elorah. He will examine into the condition of the guns and ammunition for them, the state of the implements and equipments, and the proficiency in the Artillery drill of the troops assigned, especially to that duty consisting in operating fully on all given points and the readiness of the batteries for immediate service.

Should one day not be sufficient for the inspection, he will continue it from day to day, until all of the batteries have been thoroughly examined.
