Letters,
Application for leave of absence to on file

HQ QM Army
Gentlemen, I return your letter in order to follow:

1. The regular channel for which the application is made for a furlough will be granted when the applicant shows that the Company is in need and the loss of an able-bodied officer would be detrimental to the Company's welfare. The furlough will be granted when one fifth of the Company is with the applicant. The request must be made in writing. If the request is denied, the applicant must provide a written explanation.

2. Commanding officers are to inform any other officers in the Company of the reasons for which the furlough is being granted. The Company is to be informed if the furlough is being granted for the benefit of the public interest and the Company's welfare. If the furlough is being granted for any other reason, the Company is to be informed.

3. The Company is to be considered in fixing the length of time for which the furlough is to be granted. The Company is to be considered in fixing the length of time for which the furlough is to be granted. If the Company is in need of the officer's services, the furlough is to be granted. If the Company is not in need of the officer's services, the furlough is not to be granted.

4. Persuading anyone to serve from the Company for a furlough will not be authorized to transpose at public expense.
In pursuance of the orders of the Commanding General, it will be within the power of the Agent, appointed by the Secretary of the Interior, as follows: the Secretaries of the Indian Affairs,

Agriculture, and War, and one for each

County, who will be appointed by the Terms and Conditions on which Messages are Received by these Companies for Transmission.

The public are notified that in order to guard against mistakes in the transmission of messages, every message of importance ought to be repeated by being sent back from the station at which it is to be received to the station from which it is originally sent. Half the usual price for transmission will be charged for repeating the message, and while these Companies will as heretofore use every precaution to insure correctness, they will not be responsible for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery of repeated messages beyond five hundred times the amount paid for sending the message, nor will they be responsible for mistakes or delays in the transmission of unpeated messages, from whatever cause they may arise, nor the delays arising from interruptions in the workings of their Telegraphs, nor for any mistakes or omissions of any other Company over whose lines a message is to be sent to reach the place of destination. All messages will hereafter be received by these Companies for transmission subject to the above conditions.
