Dear Sir,

We were satisfied with the goods shipped from your firm for which we have forwarded the money as he had requested. However, we are unable to accept shipment of any large order at this time due to our current financial situation.

Also, please inform us when we may expect to receive payment for our order as soon as possible. I hope to hear from you soon.

Yours truly,

Dear Sir,

You will please ship us, for use of indigent families of volunteers five hundred (500) bunches of cotton yarn and charge to fund due them from the State. 40's or 60's would be preferred if they can be had.

Respectfully,

To J. R. Foster

What will give for hundred pounds imported wire suitable for making telegraph cars? Answer by telegraph.

J. L. Kinchley

I need the card wire. Am willing to give full value. Say what you will take per pound, and send sample by mail.
