To his Excellency, Joseph E. Brown
Governor of Said State
The Petition of Barnet J. Dooly of Said County, shoveth that he is one of the Sureties for William A. Reese on his official bond as Sheriff of Said County, and that in Consideration of Signing Said bond it was agreed that James J. Jones of Said County who was also Surety, should take Charge of and Manage the Disbursement of the Money Collected by Said Reese.
James J. Jones has departed this life, and no person known to Your Petitioners is employed to Discharge Said Duty.

Your Petitioners further state that he is informed and believes that the Said William A. Reese was in his official Character as Sheriff, Collected Money for a plaintiff in suit, and affidavit the Same to his own use.

Consequently your Petitioners desiring to be released as Surety on Said Bond, all which is respectfully Sub-mited.

Second Demand of Letter
Elberton Ga 22d June 1868

To his Excellency
Joseph E. Brown
Governor

Dear Sir,

An application was received from the official bond of William A. Rice as the first of Hart County War Bonded by me to the Executive Department on the 1st inst. to which Mr. W. F. Waters replied that it was customary that the application be made over the proper signatures of the Security, and setting forth some of the reasons for the application.

I have therefore in accordance with the suggestion send herewith Mr. Dooly application over his proper signature and ask for its consideration at your Excellency's earliest convenience. Most respectfully, Your obed. servt.

Nathan J. White
State of Georgia
County of Hall

To His Excellency the Governor of Georgia

Barnes J. Dooley of said County respectfully states to your Excellency that he is one of the securities upon the official bond of William A. Neele who is now in office as the Sheriff of said County, and he desires to be relieved from all further liability on said bond. Therefore he prays your Excellency to require of said Neele new security in the place of your petition according to the Statutes in such case made.
