Executive Department
Milledgeville, Georgia
May 3rd 1863

Mr. L. Hedley, who has this day been appointed Agent of the State of Georgia, to collect from Henry Lafone of Liverpool England, all sums of money due the State of Georgia on account of Cotton shipped by said Lafone, is hereby authorized, if he finds that it is not possible to collect all that is due, on account of the facts and circumstances of Lafone, or on account of the claim which he sets up against the State, for the value of the Steam Flocic, to make the best and most advantageous compromise in his power with him, and save all he can for the State, and to give such receipts and execute such papers as may be necessary for that purpose.

Sworn under my hand and the Great Seal of the State, at the City of Milledgeville, this day and year above written.

(Signed) Joseph E. Brown
Gov. of Geo.

I hereby appoint and commission Siegfried Watzfelder, as the Agent of the State of Georgia, to proceed to Nassau, and have shipped to Europe or such other place as in his opinion will enable him to get the best price for them, all Blankets, Shores, Cloth, Soldiers Clothing, buttons, trimmings and all other property of the State of Georgia, stored with any one in Nassau, Bermuda, or other place abroad, and to sell and dispose of said goods to the best advantage.

In case any of the State's Blankets or other goods, have been removed from Nassau or other place, where they were stored, by any one professing to act as Agent of the State, said Watzfelder will demand and receive such Blankets or other property from such Agent; or if any of them have been sold, will demand and receive the proceeds immediately, which such person is hereby ordered to pay over to him.

Said Agent will first apply such part of the proceeds as may be necessary to pay off certain drafts on Henry Safone of Liverpool, which were drawn in payment for goods purchased of Ed. E. Watzfelder & Co., which are understood to be protested for non-acceptance, and he will hold the balance subject to my order.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State, at the Capitol in Milledgeville, this day and date above written.
