Union Prisoners of War at Camp Sumpter, Andersonville, Georgia.

SOUTH-WEST VIEW OF THE STOCKADE
PHOTOGRAPHIC VIEWS
OF
Andersonville Prison.

No. 1 is South-west View of Prison.
" 2 is South-east " "
" 3 is North-east " "
" 4 is North Angle " "
" 5 is Bird’s Eye View "
" 6 is Burying Party in Grave Yard, North of Stockade.
" 7 is North-west View of Prison.

These Photographic views (the originals) were taken August 17th, 1864, when there were 33,000 Union Prisoners in the Stockade, which contained only 32 acres. The Grave Yard View shows how the dead were buried. (In this grave yard 13,705 Union Prisoners are buried).

I secured the original views in 1865, in an old chest, in old Capt Wirz’s house, at Andersonville, Ga.

These Views are pronounced by all ex-Andersonville Prisoners as correct, and opportunity is offered to the public to preserve an exact view of this HELL HOLE and notorious Prison Pen.

Price, $2.00 per set (7 different views).

In sending orders for these Photographs, send to me at Lawrence, Kansas, inclosing Postal order payable to me, or inclose money in Registered Letter. Please write name and address plainly, and they will be sent to your address by return mail (or express) as desired.

THEODORE WISEMAN,
LAWRENCE, KANSAS.

N. B.—Copyright 1883, by Theo. Wiseman. All persons are forbidden, under penalties of law, to take copies of them.
Union Prisoners of War at Camp Sumpter, Andersonville, Georgia.
SOUTH-EAST VIEW—TAKEN FROM THE STOCKADE.
PHOTOGRAPHIC VIEWS

OF

Andersonville Prison.

No. 1 is South-west View of Prison.
" 2 is South-east  "  "
" 3 is North-east  "  "
" 4 is North Angle  "
" 5 is Bird’s Eye View  "
" 6 is Burying Party in Grave Yard, North of Stockade.
" 7 is North-west View of Prison.

These Photographic views (the originals) were taken August 17th, 1864, when there were 33,000 Union prisoners in the Stockade, which contained only 32 acres. The Grave Yard View shows how the dead were buried. (In this grave yard 13,705 Union Prisoners are buried).

I secured the original views in 1865, in an old chest, in old Capt. Wirz’s house, at Andersonville, Ga.

These Views are pronounced by all ex-Andersonville Prisoners as correct, and opportunity is offered to the public to preserve an exact view of this Hell Hole and notorious Prison Pen.

Price, $2.00 per set (7 different views).

In sending orders for these Photographs, send to me at Lawrence, Kansas, inclosing Postal order payable to me, or inclose money in Registered Letter. Please write name and address plainly, and they will be sent to your address by return mail (or express) as desired.

THEODORE WISEMAN,

LAWRENCE, KANSAS.

N. B.—Copyright 1883, by Theo. Wiseman. All persons are forbidden, under penalties of law, to take copies of them.
PHOTOGRAPHIC VIEWS
OF
Andersonville Prison.

No. 1 is South-west View of Prison.
" 2 is South-east " "
" 3 is North-east " "
" 4 is North Angle " "
" 5 is Bird's Eye View " "
" 6 is Burying Party in Grave Yard, North of Stockade.
" 7 is North-west View of Prison.

These Photographic views (the originals) were taken August 17th, 1864, when there were 33,000 Union Prisoners in the Stockade, which contained only 32 acres. The Grave Yard View shows how the dead were buried. (In this grave yard 13,705 Union Prisoners are buried).

I secured the original views in 1865, in an old chest, in old Capt. Wirz's house, at Andersonville, Ga.

These Views are pronounced by all ex-Andersonville Prisoners as correct, and opportunity is offered to the public to preserve an exact view of this Hell Hole and notorious Prison Pen.

Price, $2.00 per set (7 different views).

In sending orders for these Photographs, send to me at Lawrence, Kansas, inclosing Postal order payable to me, or inclose money in Registered Letter. Please write name and address plainly, and they will be sent to your address by return mail (or express) as desired.

THEODORE WISEMAN,
Lawrence, Kansas.

N. B.—Copyright 1883, by Theo. Wiseman. All persons are forbidden, under penalties of law, to take copies of them.
Union Prisoners of War at Camp Sumpter, Andersonville, Georgia.

VIEW TAKEN FROM NORTH-EAST ANGLE OF THE STOCKADE.
PHOTOGRAPHIC VIEWS

OF

Andersonville Prison.

No. 1 is South-west View of Prison.
" 2 is South-east " "
" 3 is North-east " "
" 4 is North Angle " "
" 5 is Bird's Eye View " "
" 6 is Burying Party in Grave Yard, North of Stockade. "
" 7 is North-west View of Prison.

These Photographic views (the originals) were taken August 17th, 1864, when there were 33,000 Union Prisoners in the Stockade, which contained only 32 acres. The Grave Yard View shows how the dead were buried. (In this grave yard 13,705 Union Prisoners are buried).

I secured the original views in 1865, in an old chest, in old Capt. Wirz's house, at Andersonville, Ga.

These Views are pronounced by all ex-Andersonville Prisoners as correct, and opportunity is offered to the public to preserve an exact view of this HELL HOLE and notorious Prison Pen.

Price, $2.00 per set (7 different views).

In sending orders for these Photographs, send to me at Lawrence, Kansas, inclosing Postal order payable to me, or inclose money in Registered Letter. Please write name and address plainly, and they will be sent to your address by return mail (or express) as desired.

THEODORE WISEMAN,
LAWRENCE, KANSAS.

N. B.—Copyright 1883, by Theo. Wiseman. All persons are forbidden, under penalties of law, to take copies of them.
UNION PRISONERS OF WAR AT CAMP SUMPTER, ANDERSONVILLE, GA
BIRD'S EYE VIEW OF THE STOCKADE.
PHOTOGRAPHIC VIEWS
OF
Andersonville Prison.

No. 1 is South-west View of Prison.
“2 is South-east “ “
“3 is North-east “ “
“4 is North Angle “ “
“5 is Bird’s Eye View “ “
“6 is Burying Party in Grave Yard, North of Stockade.
“7 is North-west View of Prison.

These Photographic views (the originals) were taken August 17th, 1864, when there were 33,000 Union Prisoners in the Stockade, which contained only 32 acres. The Grave Yard View shows how the dead were buried. (In this grave yard 13,705 Union Prisoners are buried).

I secured the original views in 1865, in an old chest, in old Capt. Wirz’s house, at Andersonville, Ga.

These Views are pronounced by all ex-Andersonville Prisoners as correct, and opportunity is offered to the public to preserve an exact view of this HELL HOLE and notorious Prison Pen.

Price, $2.00 per set (7 different views).

In sending orders for these Photographs, send to me at Lawrence, Kansas, inclosing Postal order payable to me, or inclose money in Registered Letter. Please write name and address plainly, and they will be sent to your address by return mail (or express) as desired.

THEODORE WISEMAN,
LAWRENCE, KANSAS.

N. B.—Copyright 1883, by Theo. Wiseman. All persons are forbidden, under penalties of law, to take copies of them.
BADLY WOUNDING UNION PRISONERS OF WAR AT CAMP SUMPTER
ANDERSONVILLE, GEORGIA.
PHOTOGRAPHIC VIEWS

OF

Andersonville Prison.

No. 1 is South-west View of Prison.

" 2 is South-east " "

" 3 is North-east " "

" 4 is North Angle " "

" 5 is Bird’s Eye View " "

" 6 is Burying Party in Grave Yard, North of Stockade.

" 7 is North-west View of Prison.

These Photographic views (the originals) were taken August 17th, 1864, when there were 33,000 Union Prisoners in the Stockade, which contained only 32 acres. The Grave Yard View shows how the dead were buried. (In this grave yard 13,705 Union Prisoners are buried).

I secured the original views in 1865, in an old chest, in old Capt Wirz’s house, at Andersonville, Ga.

These Views are pronounced by all ex-Andersonville Prisoners as correct, and opportunity is offered to the public to preserve an exact view of this HELL HOLE and notorious Prison Pen.

Price, $2.00 per set (7 different views).

In sending orders for these Photographs, send to me at Lawrence, Kansas, inclosing Postal order payable to me, or inclose money in Registered Letter. Please write name and address plainly, and they will be sent to your address by return mail (or express) as desired.

THEODORE WISEMAN,

LAWRENCE, KANSAS.

N. B.—Copyright 1883, by Theo. Wiseman. All persons are forbidden, under penalties of law, to take copies of them.
UNION PRISONERS OF WAR AT CAMP SUMTER, ANDERSONVILLE, GEORGIA.

NORTH-WEST VIEW OF THE STOCKADE.
PHOTOGRAPHIC VIEWS
OF
Andersonville Prison.

No. 1 is South-west View of Prison.
" 2 is South-east " "
" 3 is North-east " "
" 4 is North Angle "
" 5 is Bird’s Eye View "
" 6 is Burying Party in Grave Yard, North of Stockade.
" 7 is North-west View of Prison.

These Photographic views (the originals) were taken August 17th, 1864, when there were 33,000 Union Prisoners in the Stockade, which contained only 32 acres. The Grave Yard View shows how the dead were buried. (In this grave yard 13,705 Union Prisoners are buried).

I secured the original views in 1865, in an old chest, in old Capt. Wirz’s house, at Andersonville, Ga.

These Views are pronounced by all ex-Andersonville Prisoners as correct, and opportunity is offered to the public to preserve an exact view of this Hell Hole and notorious Prison Pen.

Price, $2.00 per set (7 different views).

In sending orders for these Photographs, send to me at Lawrence, Kansas, inclosing Postal order payable to me, or inclose money in Registered Letter. Please write name and address plainly, and they will be sent to your address by return mail (or express) as desired.

THEODORE WISEMAN,
LAWRENCE, KANSAS.

N. B.—Copyright 1883, by Theo. Wiseman. All persons are forbidden, under penalties of law, to take copies of them.